| | Regulation 30 (8) | Where members choose to voluntarily draw their benefits on or after age 55 and before Normal Pension |

| Discretions of Employing Authority | | |
|---|---|--|
| Main Purpose of Regulation | Regulation | Discretion Exercised |
| Waiving of actuarial reduction - This regulation allows the employer to consent to the early release of all, or part, of a member's LGPS benefits provided they have also consented to the reduction of hours worked or grade in which the member is employed. The member must be aged 55 or over. | | Age the Trust will not agree to waive in whole or in part any actuarial reduction that would otherwise be applied to their benefits except in circumstances where the Trust consider it is in its financial or operational interests to do so or there are compelling compassionate reasons for doing so. Each case: will be considered on the merits of the financial and / or operational business case put forward, or will be considered on the merits of the compassionate case put forward, and will require the approval including, where the reduction is only to be waived in part, approval for the amount of reduction to be waived. |
| Switching on the 85-year rule for members voluntarily drawing benefits on or after age 55 and before age 60 - Whilst the 85-year rule does not automatically apply in full if the employee decides to voluntarily draw benefits on or after age 55 and before age 60, this regulation allows the employer to switch the rule back on. If the employer switches on the 85-year rule they will pick up any strain on Fund cost. | Schedule 2 of the Transitional Regulations. | Will not agree to apply the 85-year rule where members choose to voluntarily draw their benefits on or after age 55 and before age 60 except in circumstances where the Trust consider it is in its financial or operational interests to do so. Each case will be considered on the merits of the financial and / or operational business case put forward. |
| The power of employing authority to award additional pension - this regulation allows an employer to resolve to award a member an amount of additional pension, up to the LGPS maximum, to an active scheme member or within 6 months of leaving to a member whose employment was terminated on the grounds of redundancy or business efficiency. | Regulation 31 | Will not make use of the discretion to grant extra annual pension to an active scheme member or, within 6 months of leaving, to a member who is dismissed by reason of redundancy or business efficiency or whose employment is terminated by mutual consent on the grounds of business efficiency except in exceptional circumstances where the Trust consider it is in its financial or operational interests to do so. Each case will be considered on the merits of the financial and / or operational business case put forward. |
